Panel proposed by Learning Together (UK) and Walls to Bridges (Canada)

Summary of the Webinar

The Canadian Walls to Bridges (W2B) and the UK Learning Together programs both bring campus-enrolled and incarcerated students together to study semester-long courses in prison settings. Based upon similar foundations of transformative education and destigmatizing «others», both programs involve university-prison partnerships. This presentation will be a collaboration between alumni and instructors in both programs, exploring their differences, similarities, successes, and challenges.
