How and where LINC works

We support organizations, institutions and associations and provide adequate tools for the development of community empowering. The actions we propose are adapted to emerging needs, based on our experience and our know-how, but we choose not to present predetermined solutions. We start from the specificity of the contexts: this is why what we create and design is always unique. Our research and evaluations are done together with the protagonists themselves, whether they are public administrations or private individuals, without lowering tools from the other, but offering a reading category and decision-making tools.

Our team

The professionals who make up the team have different experiences and training paths, precisely to offer answers that respect the plurality of contexts with which we work and with which, at the same time, we share emotions, itineraries and projects.

The work done with Pasquale De Santis Prison in Porto Azzurro, Isola d'Elba

Coordination meetings with prisons

Linc has been collaborating with the Porto Azzurro prison for more than ten years, the relationship with the director, the educators and the prison staff is very good and there is always a lot of collaboration. Despite the difficulties caused by the pandemic, we managed to have two coordination meetings.

Observation of distance learning course

With the help of educators and prison staff we were able to collect very important data for the observation of a distance learning course. We focused on the distance course organised by the University of Siena, "Course of Italian Language for Foreigners UNISTRASI", which is necessary to obtain Italian citizenship.
