

WEBINAR SERIES ON INNOVATIVE PRACTICES AND RESEARCH IN EDUCATION IN PRISON

#2 Sharing Practices and Knowledge in Latin America

(in Spanish with simultaneous translation into French and English)

Date and time : February 22 2023, from 10 am to 11:30 am (EST)

Register at : https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_I_uNWxpgTbKFnerGotMcLQ

Participation is free, registration is mandatory.

Panel presented by the University of Buenos Aires (Argentina), the University of Playa Ancha (Valparaiso, Chile) and the Complutense University of Madrid (Spain)

Summary of the Webinar

In this second webinar, our panelists will share a set of practices and experiences on the prison environment in Latin America. Through a presentation of our panelists' research work, the audience will discover some of the programs and initiatives available in Argentina, Chile and Brazil. Without drawing an exhaustive picture of the situation in Latin America, our panelists will highlight some of the issues and problems faced in these each country while keeping in mind those that affect the region as a whole.

Programme

Welcome and opening address

UNESCO Chair of Applied Research for Education in Prison

Moderator

Juan Pablo Parchuc, Associate Professor in Literary Theory and researcher at the University of Buenos Aires

Presentation and discussion

Juan Pablo Parchuc, Associate Professor in Literary Theory and researcher at the University of Buenos Aires

Sergio Grossi, Researcher (Marie Curie Fellow), Complutense University of Madrid

Violeta Rosa Acuña Collado, Program Director and Magister in Adult Education and Training Process, Faculty of Education, University Playa Ancha of Valparaiso